Granby. Saturday, April 22, 2017 – Daniel Pelletier, President and Chief Executive Officer of Artopex, donated $150,000 today to the Granby Hospital Center Foundation as part of its major fundraising campaign. This donation demonstrates Artopex's commitment to investing in the community and its employees and their families by helping to maintain and improve health services in the region.

"Health is a priority for our company and we are pleased to be able to contribute to improving the quality of care offered at the Granby Hospital Center," explains Daniel Pelletier. "With only a few months left the campaign, for which I have acted as Chair, I wanted to make the business community aware of our collective future with regards to healthcare and to mobilize the community to contribute to the fundraising objective of $10 million."

The total amount of money collected as part of the Foundation's fundraising campaign will be divided into four main areas: the establishment of a new intensive care unit, a Mother-Child center, clinical ambulatory care, the renewal of equipment for medical imaging, and the addition and upgrading of specialized devices.
